

Just to let you know

Dear Parents,

We have been so impressed by how passionately Year 6 have embraced election fever. Many groups have been campaigning tirelessly for their chosen party and the corridors have been filled with political debate this week. After a hard fought battle and very realistic ballot at the HT polling station, it was announced that the Green Party, led by Michael Kerr, has been victorious. Huge congratulations to all the candidates, campaign teams and to everyone who helped run the event..

Next Friday (15th May) we are going to the Lido. Please remember that we are meeting there at 10am and that children need to bring both a packed lunch and some warm layers as the water isn't that warm and the children will feel chilly when they get out!

With SATs next week please use this weekend as an opportunity to give your child some time to rest and have fun!

Have a lovely weekend!

KEEP CALM
THEY'RE ONLY SATs!

The children's LEAPS projects have gotten underway this week; each child has chosen an aspect of the industrial revolution which has particularly interested them and they have designed their own questions to enable them to explore further. The children will be deciding how they present their research in a variety of creative ways.
